

CARBONDALE LOSES VALUED TEACHER FROM HIGH SCHOOL

1928
Miss Edna Loomis, Teacher of English, Appointed to Staff of Scranton Central High School.

Miss Edna Loomis one of the teachers of English in the Carbondale High school has been engaged by the Scranton School district to teach English and Mathematics in the Central High school Scranton.

Miss Loomis of course will assume her new position with the opening of the Fall term of school and with her mother will take up her residence in Scranton.

Probably no teacher in Carbondale is more highly esteemed than Miss Loomis because of her many fine qualities and charms of personality and because of her conscientious and capable work as a teacher.

There are rumors that other teachers are very close to the point of severing relations with the Carbondale district and the reason in some cases is given that they cannot afford to work without stated paydays. Other teachers say that they'd leave too if they had positions as they have apprehensions that their positions are becoming too much the football of politics.

In 1932 Edna P. Loomis was awarded a Master of Arts degree in English from The Pennsylvania State College.

Her Master's thesis is entitled A COMPARISON OF LORD CHESTERFIELD'S LETTERS TO HIS SON WITH THE CONDUCT BOOKS OF THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY.

A bound copy of that thesis (93 pp., typed by HLRP) was taken by Edna P. Loomis with her to Saint Luke's Episcopal Church Home. Following her death, that thesis, together with other papers that were of great importance to Edna P. Loomis, were forwarded to HLRP.
That bound copy of EPL's thesis is presently in the library at The Homestead.
